On state highways

Travel increases

Travel on the state's major highways was up more than three per cent in July when compared to the same month a year ago, the Virginia Department of Highways and Transportation said today.

July travel on the interstate, arterial, and primary highways showed an increase of 3.4 per cent, compared to July, 1981.

Travel by all passenger vehicles was up 4.4 per cent, while out-of-state passenger vehicles increased by 5 per cent. Virginia registered passenger vehicles showed an increase of 4.3 per cent when compared to the same month a year ago.

Bus and truck travel increased only slightly, 0.01 of 1 per cent, when compared to July, 1981.

The travel statistics were compiled from traffic counts taken at 283 locations on the state's interstate, arterial, and primary highways, according to A. L. Thomas, Jr., the department's traffic and safety engineer.

'Instructional Media'

Class slated here

The University of Virginia has scheduled an extension class in Appomattox for the fall semester. The class number and title is EDCI 589: Instructional Media. The class instructor is Terry Bailey, Media Specialist, Lynchburg Public Schools. Three hours graduate or undergraduate credits will be given for successful completion of the class.

The class will begin on September 13 at 7 p.m. in Room 228 at Appomattox County High School.

The Appomattox County School Board arranges with the University of Virginia School of Continuing Education for classes to be offered in the fall and spring semesters and for a June three weeks session to be conducted. These classes are planned for instructional personnel endorsements or gaining more depth in their respective areas of assignment.

The classes are also open to persons who are not employed by the school system. The tuition cost for non-teaching individuals is $132.00 per class.

Additional information may be secured by calling the School Board Office. The telephone number is 352-8251.

Adult education classes planned here

The schedule for Adult Education Classes for the first semester in the Appomattox County School Division has been announced by the superintendent, Lloyd G. Walton. Classes are scheduled to begin the week of September 20. Registration is in process now. Persons who are interested and want to participate are requested to register by calling the School Board Office at 352-8253 between the hours of 8:30 a.m. and 5 p.m., or by mailing in a registration form.

The class schedule is located elsewhere in this issue of the Times-Virginian. Please consult the schedule for information concerning classes offered.

Adult education classes are designed to serve the various needs of adults. A wide variety of classes are being offered this semester. "It is therefore very important that persons pre-register for classes," states R. B. Carter, Director of Vocational Education. Pre-registration is used to determine whether enrollment is sufficient to offer a particular class and to insure adequate materials and equipment. Tuition charges for adult classes are designed to cover only instructional costs; thus an enrollment of ten persons is required to offer a particular class.

Persons desiring additional information on adult classes are requested to contact the School Board Office or R. B. Carter at 352-8253.

Long, Wooten marry

Mrs. Tony Van Wooten

The marriage of Tina Robin Long to Tony Van Wooten was an occasion of Saturday afternoon, September 4, 1982, at one o'clock at Appomattox Baptist Temple.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Jerry M. Long of Appomattox. The bridegroom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Melvin C. Wooten of Dillwyn.

Officiating at the double ring ceremony was the Rev. Ronald L. Gallagher, pastor of the bride's church.

A program of nuptial music was presented by Mrs. J. Franklin Vaughan, pianist. Mr. Harold Wyatt and Miss Donna Callahan sang "Endless Love", and Miss Callaham sang "The Wedding Song".

The bride, escorted by her father and given in marriage by her parents, wore a gown of soft white chiffon. The fitted bodice and bishop sleeves were adorned with Venice lace appliques, sequins and pearls. The full skirt was edged with chantilly border lace and scattered with chantilly appliques. A wreath of flowers with attached fingertip length veil crowned her head. The bride carried a bouquet of white rose buds, gypsophelia and stephonatis with baby's breath and satin streamers.

Miss Kimberly Dawn Shupe of Appomattox was maid of honor. She wore a floor length dress of pink taffeta and flocked nylon with French puff sleeves, designed and made by the mother of the bride. Miss Shupe carried a bouquet of snapdragons, phoelenopsis orchids, gypsophelia and baby's breath with rainbow streamers. Attendants were Miss Patty Lee Harris of Evergreen, and Miss Jeri Lynn Long, sister of the bride, of Appomattox. Their dresses were similar to that of the honor attendant and were also designed and made by the mother of the bride. Their bouquets were identical to that of the maid of honor.

Miss Cathy Ann Long of Front Royal, cousin of the bride, was flower girl. She wore a floor length dress of white taffeta with flocked nylon apron matching the attendants.

Master Troy Micah Wooten of Dillwyn, brother of the bridegroom, served as ring bearer.

Mr. Melvin Moore was his son's best man. Ushers were Carl Allan Manis of Farmville, cousin of the bridegroom, and Gary Allen Long of Appomattox, brother of the bride.

Mrs. Long chose a floor length gown of powder blue for her daughter's wedding. She wore a corsage of dusty pink azaleas.

Mrs. Wooten, mother of the bridegroom, wore a floor length gown of mint green with a corsage of biege phoelenopsis orchids.

Mrs. Paul T. Nash of Spout Spring was mistress of ceremonies.

Miss Catherine Elizabeth Gallagher of Appomattox attended the guest register.

Following the ceremony, the parents of the bride entertained with a reception in the fellowship hall of the church.

Mrs. T. M. Manis of Farmville, aunt of the bridegroom, and Mrs. Jeff Whorley of Cumberland, sister of the bridegroom, served the wedding cake. Miss Lisa Janette Stoots of Front Royal, cousin of the bride, served at the punch bowl.

The bride is a graduate of Appomattox County High School. The bridegroom is a graduate of Buckingham County High School and is employed with Appomattox-Buckingham State Forest.

After a weddoing trip to the beach, the couple will make their home in Dillwyn.

Miss Reynolds honored

Miss Rita Faye Reynolds, bride-elect, was honored with a miscellaneshow shower on August 21 in the Fellowship Hall of New Hope Baptist Church.

Hostesses for the shower were Ann Reynolds, Ruby Reynolds, Doris Mitchell, Betsy Reynolds, Merle Nash, and Hazel Reynolds all aunts of the honoree.

The refreshment table was decorated with a centerpiece of peach glads and white daises flanked by silver candlelabra and white candles.

The wedding of Miss Reynolds to Mr. David Salmon will be an event of September 18 at 8 o'clock in New Hope Baptist Church.

Clinedinst, Martin are married

Mrs. R.B. Martin, Jr.

The wedding of Miss Vicki Carlotta Clinedinst to Mr. Reeves Benjamin Martin Jr. took place on September 4, 1982 at 7:30 p.m. at West Lynchburg Baptist Church in Lynchburg, Virginia.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Eugene Anderson Clinedinst of Concord. The groom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Reeves Benjamin Martin of Madison Heights.

The bride is the granddaughter of Mr. A. B. Clinedinst, Sr., and the late Bessie Clinedinst of Strasburg and of Mr. B.B. Bradley and the late Mrs. Gladys Bradley of Nashville, Tennessee. The groom is the grandson of the late Mr. and Mrs. Walter B. Martin of Arrington and of the late Mr. and Mrs. Langhorne Scruggs of Lynchburg.

The bride was given in marriage by her father, Mr. Eugene Clinedinst.

The ceremony was officiated by Reverend William F. Smathers, pastor of the West End Baptist Church of Houston, Texas. Rev. Smathers and his family are very special friends of the bride and groom with Rev. Smathers being the former Associate Pastor and Youth Minister of West Lynchburg Baptist Church.

The soloist was Kerry Bradley, cousin of the bride, from Cincinnati, Ohio. The song selection included "The Wedding Song" "Perfect Love", "Sometime" in dedication to their parents, and "I Corinthians 13" arranged by Mr. Bradley.

The bride's honor attendant was Miss Carol Ann Clinedinst, sister of the bride. The other attendants serving in the wedding party were Mrs. Terri Little of Wake Forest, North Carolina; Mrs. Linda Howard of Madison Heights, and sister of the groom; Miss Kathy Ball of Durham, North Carolina; Miss Pam Paulette of Charlottesville; and Mrs. Rhonda Hand of Hollidaysburg, Pennsylvania.

The groom's best man was his father, Mr. Reeves Benjamin Martin of Madison Heights, Virginia. The ushers serving in the wedding party were: Mr. Jay Little of Wake Forest, North Carolina; Mr. Leon Howard of Madison Heights, Virginia and brother-in-law of the groom; Mr. Frank McQuarry of Lynchburg, Virginia; Mr. Donald Martin of Madison Heights, Virginia and brother of the groom; and Mr. E. C. Sheridan of Philadelphia, Pennsylvania.

Miss Jennifer Howard, niece of the groom, was the flower girl.

Mrs. Doris Glass of Lynchburg, directed the wedding. The reception hostesses included Mrs. Irvene Daniel of Lynchburg; Miss Cindy Berry of Richmond; and Miss Nancy Marshall of Laurel, Maryland.

The bride is a 1976 graduate of Rustburg High School. She received her Bachelor of Science Degree in Nursing in 1980 from Radford University. She is employed as a Nursing Supervisor and as a Staff Development Instructor at Lynchburg General Hospital.

The groom is a 1974 graduate of E. C. Glass High School and attended Liberty Baptist College. He is employed by Advance Auto Stores and serves as manager of the Altavista Branch.

After a southern honeymoon, the couple will live in Lynchburg, Virginia.
